EDITORIAL POLICY:

The broad objective of Statistics in Transition new series is to advance the statistical and associated methods used primarily by statistical agencies and other research institutions. To meet that objective, the journal encompasses a wide range of topics in statistical design and analysis, including survey methodology and survey sampling, census methodology, statistical uses of administrative data sources, estimation methods, economic and demographic studies, and novel methods of analysis of socioeconomic and population data.

SCOPUS:

"This is a professionally run journal of wide interest. An interesting feature is the brief introduction in each issue given by an editor. This will be seen by readers as evidence of close editorial scrutiny and enhance the credibility of the journal, besides being of interest in itself" – from the final evaluation report of the SCOPUS' Content Selection & Advisory Board (CSAB).
